

WHAT'S FOR SUPPER

A STUDY OF THE HOLY DAY FEASTS

EASTER :: MARK 16:1-7

1. Why do you think that the story of Jesus rising from the dead is difficult for some people to believe?
2. Read Mark 16:1-7. Do you believe Jesus actually rose from the dead? If so, why do you believe?
3. Pastor Mark argues that the Christian Faith is not based a philosophy or a spiritual metaphor or a set of rules, but rather on a historical event. Why is that important?
4. How would you define "inner peace"?
5. What do you think Jesus meant when he said, "My peace I give to you, I do not give the world's peace, but my peace"?
6. Why do you think so many in America have been reporting a lack of peace, contentment and personal satisfaction over the past few years?
7. What do you do on a daily basis to build and strengthen your inner peace and your relationship with the Lord?

A STUDY OF THE HOLY DAY FEASTS

EASTER :: MARK 16:1-7

8. Inner peace gives us confidence about who we are in this life, but also about where we are going when this life is over. How does Easter give you peace about facing your own death?

9. Pastor Mark suggests that death is not something we should fear, but something we should prepare for. How have you prepared yourself for the eventuality of your death?

10. How does the truth of Easter help you deal with the challenges of life?
